Section 1. Definitions:

- a) "Eligible delinquent taxes" means the delinquent taxes, including interest, penalties and charges, which have accrued against a parcel as of the date on which an installment agreement is executed.
- b) "Eligible owner" means an owner of real property who is eligible to or has entered into an installment agreement.

(If additional space is needed, attach pages the same size as this sheet, and number each.)

Section 2. The Clinton County Treasurer, the enforcing officer of Clinton County, is authorized to enter into an installment agreement providing for the payment of eligible delinquent taxes in installments with property owners. Such installment payment of eligible delinquent taxes shall be made available to each eligible owner on a uniform basis pursuant to the provisions of the New York State Real Property Tax Law and this local law. Such installment payments of eligible delinquent taxes shall commence upon the signing of an agreement between the Clinton County Treasurer and eligible owner. The agreement shall be kept on file in the office of the Clinton County Treasurer.

Section 3. The term of the installment agreement shall be twenty-four months, the payment schedule shall be monthly, quarterly or semi-annually, the required initial down payment shall be twenty-five percent of the eligible delinquent taxes and eligible properties shall include all properties within Clinton County.

Section 4. A property owner shall not be eligible to enter into an agreement pursuant to this section where:

- a) there is a delinquent tax lien on the same property for which the application is made or on another property owned by such person and such delinquent tax lien is not eligible to be made part of the agreement pursuant to this section;
- b) such person is the owner of another parcel within the tax district on which there is a delinquent tax lien, unless such delinquent tax lien is eligible to be and is made part of the agreement pursuant to this section; or
- c) such person was the owner of property on which there existed a delinquent tax lien and which lien was foreclosed within three years of the date on which an application is made to execute an agreement pursuant to this section.

Section 5. A property owner shall be eligible to enter into an agreement pursuant to this section no earlier than thirty days after the delivery of the return of unpaid taxes to the enforcing officer.

Section 6. The amount due under an installment agreement shall be the eligible delinquent taxes, plus the interest that is to accrue on each installment payment up to and including the date on which each payment is to be made. The agreement shall provide that the amount due shall be paid, as nearly as possible, in equal amounts on each payment due date. Each installment payment shall be due on or before the last day of the month in which it is to be paid.

Section 7. Interest and penalties. Interest on the total amount of eligible delinquent taxes, less the amount of the down payment made by the eligible owner, if any is required, shall be that amount as determined pursuant to the New York State Real Property Tax Law §924-a. The rate of interest in effect of the date the agreement is signed shall remain constant during the period of the agreement. If an installment is not paid on or before the date it is due, interest shall be added at the rate prescribed by New York State Real Property Tax Law §924-a for each month or portion thereof until paid. In addition, if any installment is not paid by the end of the fifteenth calendar day after the payment due date, a late charge of five percent of the overdue payment shall be added.

Section 8. Default

- a) The eligible owners shall be deemed to be in default of the agreement upon:
 - (i) non-payment of any installment within thirty days from the payment due date;
 - (ii) non-payment of any tax, special ad valorem levy or special assessment which is levied subsequent to the signing of the agreement by the tax district, and which is not paid prior to the expiration of the warrant of the collecting officer; or
 - (iii) default of the eligible owner on another agreement made and executed pursuant to this section.

- b) In the event of a default, the County shall have the right to require the entire unpaid balance, with interest and late charges, to be paid in full. The County shall also have the right to enforce the collection of the delinquent tax lien pursuant to the applicable sections of law, special tax act, charter or local law.
- c) Where an eligible owner is in default and the County does not either require the eligible owner to pay in full the balance of the delinquent taxes or elect to institute foreclosure proceedings, the County shall not be deemed to have waived the right to do so.

Section 9. Notification of potential eligible owners

- a) Within forty-five days after receiving the return on unpaid taxes from the collecting officer, the enforcing officer shall notify, by first class mail, all potential eligible owners of their possible eligibility to make installment payments on such tax delinquencies. The enforcing officer may add one dollar to the amount of the tax lien for such mailing.
- b) The failure to mail any such notice, or the failure of the addressee to receive the same, shall not in any way affect the validity of taxes or interest prescribed by law with respect thereto.
- c) The enforcing officer shall not be required to notify the eligible owner when an installment is due.

Section 10. The provisions of this section shall not affect the tax lien against the property except that the lien shall be reduced by the payments made under an installment agreement, and that the lien shall not be foreclosed during the period of installment payments provided that such installment payments are not in default.

Section 11. With respect to taxes becoming liens during 1995, the redemption period for all property shall be four (4) years after the lien date.

Section 12. With respect to taxes becoming liens during 1996, the redemption period for all property shall be three (3) years after the lien date.

Section 13. Pursuant to Section 1102(2)(e) of the Real Property Tax Law and commencing with taxes becoming a lien in 1995, a charge of one hundred and fifty-dollars ($150.00) per parcel for the reasonable and necessary costs of title searches required or authorized to satisfy the notice requirements of the Real Property Tax Law.
