NARRATIVE: The Clinton County Sheriff's Department responded to a report of a three car personal injury accident on the Military Turnpike, in the Town of Beekmantown. Upon the patrols arrival it was determined that a 2005 Subaru Outback , driven by Ruth L. Vaincourt (73 YOA), of Beekmantown was stopped in the roadway waiting to make a left turn into her driveway. At this time the operator of a 2002 Chevrolet Malibu, driven by Theodore I. Premo (38 YOA), of Churubusco came up from behind and struck the right rear of the 2005 Subaru with the left front of his 2002 Chevrolet. Driver of vehicle three, Tara L. Lancto (29 YOA) of Malone operating a 2002 Chevrolet Impala took evasive action and swerved to her right to avoid the accident and went off the road striking a utility pole guide wire and a cedar hedge row. Ruth L. Vaincourt was transported to CVPH by the EMT's of CVPH with a complaint of neck and back pain. Theodore Premo was issued a traffic ticket for following to close. The Sheriff's Department received assistance from the New York State Police and the Beekmantown Fire Department.
