NARRATIVE: Clinton County Sheriff's Deputies were dispatched to a personal injury motor vehicle accident involving a vehicle striking a house on State Route 9 in the Town of Plattsburgh. Investigation into the accident revealed that the operator of the motor vehicle, Shawn M. Dragoon, had crossed over the center line, exited the roadway, and continued to travel north until his vehicle struck the residence located at 7389 State Route 9 in the Town of Plattsburgh. Dragoon was not injured in the impact. Two individuals were inside the residence at the time of the impact, one of which was injured. The injured individual was not transported to CVPH by ambulance, but sought medical attention on her own accord. The extent of her injuries is unknown at this time. Further investigation revealed that Dragoon's NYS Driver License was suspended due to allegedly failing to answer a summons in the City of Plattsburgh Court.

DISPOSITION: Dragoon was issued UTTs for Speed Not Reasonable and Prudent, Failure to Keep Right, and Moved From Lane Unsafely as well as an Appearance Ticket for Aggravated Unlicensed Operation 3rd Degree requiring him to appear at the Town of Plattsburgh Court on a later date to answer the allegations.
