

PRESS RELEASE

Jennifer Bowen

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

On Saturday January 30, 2010 the Clinton County Sheriff's Office arrested a local woman and charged her with felony DWI.

29-year-old Jennifer Bowen of Plattsburgh was stopped by Sheriff's deputies on Military Turnpike just north of Rugar Street around 11:30p.m. for - speeding. Bowen was allegedly driving at 57mph in a 45mph zone.

During the traffic stop deputies observed Bowen in what appeared to be an intoxicated state. Bowen failed field sobriety tests administered by deputies. She was subsequently given a breath test which revealed her blood alcohol level at twice the legal limit.

Bowen was taken into custody and brought to the Clinton County Sheriffs Office. Deputies charged her with two felony counts of DWI. Bowen had previously been convicted of DWI in 2004.

She was arraigned in Schuyler Falls Town court and sent to the Clinton County Jail on $500 cash bail. Bowen will appear in Schuyler Falls Town court on February 3, 2010 to face the allegations.
