

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A Plattsburgh New York woman is facing multiple felony charges for allegedly bringing drugs into the Clinton County Jail.

Following an investigation Clinton County Sheriff's Office deputies arrested 32-year-old Misty Davidson at around 1:00p.m. yesterday.

Davidson is accused of trying to pass a controlled substance to 33-year-old Shawn Gushlaw, an inmate she was visiting at the jail.

Deputies charged Davidson with two felonies: introducing dangerous contraband into a prison and criminal sale of a controlled substance.

Gushlaw was charged with one felony count of possessing prison contraband and three misdemeanors: Criminal solicitation, criminal possession of a controlled substance and aggravated harassment.

Davidson and Gushlaw were arraigned in Plattsburgh Town Court. Davidson was sent to the Clinton County Jail on $1,000 cash bail. Gushlaw was remanded back to the Clinton County Jail. The pair will reappear in Plattsburgh Town Court at a later date to face the charges.

#