

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A Plattsburgh man convicted of multiple felony counts of criminal mischief in 2008 and sentenced to probation is now facing a new felony charge for allegedly violating the terms of his probation.

Deputies from the Clinton County Sheriff's Office arrested 32-year-old Gene Lucia at his residence on December 3, 2010 just after 7:00p.m.

Lucia, who was sentenced to 5 years of probation after his 2008 conviction for criminal mischief, is accused of violating the terms of his probation.

Deputies charged Lucia with felony violation of probation. He was sent to the Clinton County Jail where he is being held without bail.
