

PRESS RELEASE

Katrina L. Race

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

A Vermont woman wanted in New York on felony charges surrendered herself to authorities on Monday.

Deputies acting on an arrest warrant issued out of Plattsburgh City Court took 28-year-old Katrina Race into custody just before 11:30a.m. at the Northwest State Correctional Facility in Swanton Vermont. Race was being held there on unrelated charges.

Race is wanted in New York for allegedly defrauding the state welfare system. Deputies charged her with felony welfare fraud and felony offering a false instrument for filing.

Race was arraigned in Plattsburgh City Court and released to appear at a later date with counsel

###